

Presentation

This volume brings together selected papers presented at the graduate conferences in Translation Studies held in Tarragona in 2005 and 2006.

Each paper presents an on-going research project, in no case with definitive conclusions, in all cases with indications of paths to be followed in the future.

Our hope, in publishing the papers and indeed in organizing the conferences, is that these diverse aperçus will help to spread basic ideas about translation research, and encourage dialogue and exchange between young scholars.

Anthony Pym
Tarragona, July 2007

Aknowledgements

The editors would like to extend sincere thanks to Rokiah Awang, Serafima Khalzanova and Cèlia Querol Gimeno for their hard work on this volume, and for putting up with us in the office.